

Athziri Soto

Athziri Soto is a mid-level associate in the Dispute Resolution Practice Group Baker McKenzie's Guadalajara office. Her practice focuses on commercial litigation and arbitration. Athziri joined the Firm in 2015. Athziri has experience representing clients in international commercial arbitrations in construction and renewable energy matters in both English and Spanish.

Athziri is an active participant on diversity and inclusion initiatives. She is a member of the Women in Arbitration global group at Baker McKenzie, which encourages the growth and development of women in this practice. She is also a member of Baker Woman, which actively promotes the gender equity in within the Firm.