

David Sandberg

David Sandberg is a Senior Associate at Mannheimer Swartling and a member of the firm's Dispute Resolution Group. His practice focuses on international commercial arbitration and investment treaty arbitration. David has represented clients in commercial disputes under several institutional arbitration rules (including the SCC and the ICC). His experience includes disputes in a number of different areas, such as SPAs, licensing agreement, long term energy purchase agreements and in several different industries, including energy, telecom, defence and biotech. He also has experience from representing clients before Swedish courts and the Court of Justice of the European Union, and in investment disputes under bilateral investment treaties and the ICSID convention. David also gives lectures and holds seminars on dispute resolution and arbitration related topics at universities.
