

Hongchuan Zhang-Krogman

Hongchuan Zhang-Krogman is an associate at Three Crowns LLP in Washington, DC. Hong's practice focuses on complex multi-jurisdictional disputes and she is qualified to practice in New York, Washington, DC and Singapore. She has experience representing private clients, States and State-owned entities in the US, Asia and Europe in disputes in the TMT, energy, infrastructure, private equity, aerospace and defence sectors, governed by various arbitral rules including the ICDR ICC, SIAC, UNCITRAL and ICSID Rules. Hong started her legal career as a law clerk at the Supreme Court of Singapore and spent several years in Singapore's Attorney-General's Chambers representing Singapore in international disputes and negotiations and at international fora.