

Kshama A. Loya

Kshama A. Loya is a dual qualified lawyer in India and England & Wales. Kshama advises and represents clients in complex commercial and investor-State arbitrations, and commercial litigations. She regularly acts as counsel before arbitral tribunals and Indian courts. Kshama specializes in pre-litigation strategies, trial and advocacy. She is a Leader in the International Dispute Resolution team at Nishith Desai Associates.

Kshama began her practice in 2009 as a counsel in the Chambers of Justice S.V. Gangapurwala, High Court of Bombay. She has previously worked in London on international commercial and investor-State arbitrations. She completed her LL.M. from King's College, London and has studied Negotiation at Harvard Law School. Kshama is a vice-chair of the Inter-Pacific Bar Association (IPBA) Dispute Resolution & Arbitration Committee, founding co-chair of the IPBA Investment Arbitration Sub-committee, board member of the American Arbitration Association ICDR Y&I, and steering committee member of CIArb India YMG.