

Laura Zielinski

Laura is an attorney at Holland & Knight in Mexico City. She specializes in commercial and investor-State arbitration, with a particular focus on Public International Law, including International Space Law. She studied at Sciences Po in Paris, Columbia Law School in New York, and has a certificate in Strategic Space Law Course from McGill University. She can work in English, French, German and Spanish and is qualified to practice law in Paris, New York and Mexico. She founded the Space Arbitration Association in 2021 and regularly speaks and publishes on topics related to disputes in the space sector.